DRIVER ALERT: SLOW DOWN FOR STUDENTS!

Boise, ID -- 8/18/2011 -- The first day of school in the Boise School District should serve as a reminder to all drivers to slow down for students. The first day of school for students in the Boise School District is Wednesday, August 24, 2011. More than 25,000 students are enrolled in the Boise School District. On the first day of school, drivers need to be on the lookout for students walking to school, waiting at bus stops, etc. The speed limit in a school zone is 20 mph and the Boise School District urges motorists to pay attention to this speed limit when driving near schools, or students.
